++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A dry night to come with some clear spells.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mainly dry with a few clear spells overnight, the best of any breaks across southern counties. A mild night and winds mostly light. A few mist or fog patches may develop under any longer cloud breaks. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Wednesday:
It will be mainly dry and rather cloudy, any patchy light rain and drizzle soon dying out. Occasional bright or sunny spells developing later in the day. Rather mild. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Rain pushing south later on Thursday, heavy at times. Winds also freshening. Mainly dry and bright Friday and Saturday with chilly nights, a frost possible.
